se:café soft stool

Fully upholstered bar stool for a cosy atmosphere

The elegant se:café soft stool with its soft upholstered seat not only invites you to linger at a bar or a high dining table, but also proves to be the ideal choice for short meetings in a modern work café. The “studio” intermediate height makes it possible to sit and stand up spontaneously, depending on the requirements of the working environment. The “bar” version is the ideal choice for a raised sitting position, for example at the bar or high desk. These versatile options ensure maximum flexibility and comfort in various work situations.

Advantages

- The model impresses with its attractive appearance.
- The comfortable upholstery creates a cosy and welcoming feel.
- The standardised form and design language ensures a harmonious appearance when combined with other products or versions.

Features

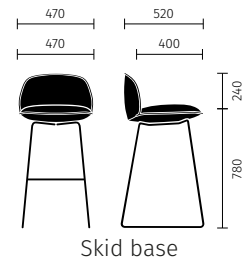

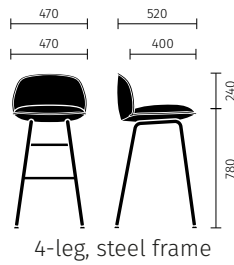

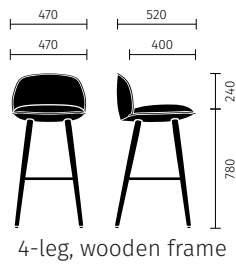

- The model has a foot rail.
- The choice of upholstery style – whether formal or relaxed – serves as a key design element.
- A striking design element is the all-round decorative, double-stitched seam: the inside and outside are made of the cover material and the thread colours follow the chosen cover colour.
- se:café soft stool is upholstered with a cushion-like fabric, with a compact seat and a low backrest.
- The foot rail is the same colour as the selected foot for skid and four-legged steel frames, and it is always black for wooden frames.
- The bar stool has no armrests.

Options/accessories

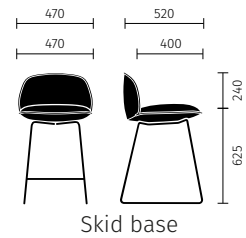

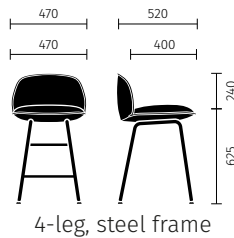

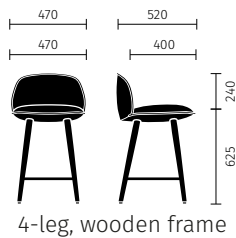

- The bar stool is available in two seat heights: 625 mm (studio) and 780 mm (bar).
- Three frame variants are available: 4-leg with wooden frame, 4-leg with steel frame and a skid frame.
- It is possible to replace individual parts at a later date.
- The three upholstery covers can be configured independently of each other: seat upholstery, inner backrest upholstery and outer backrest upholstery.
- The Sedus fabric collections, as well as leather and imitation leather, are available. Note: Colour combinations are possible within a fabric collection. Leather and imitation leather can be combined with each other and with all fabric collections.
